Hi Lorena,

We did not forget about your question below!

Attached is the data we have on the ratio of voters to full-time permanent staff in the participating jurisdictions. I only included the offices where we currently have a staff count.

We do not have the office's active registered voter count (and instead have the citizen voting age population), but hopefully this still helps.

Thanks!
Sophie

What an amazing meeting!! Thank you so much again!!!

There was great information!! Question, can you please provide statistics of the active registered voter ratio to full staff from the participating jurisdictions?
